CHURCH OF EPIPHANY

THE PRETTY CHAPEL CONSE-CRATED TO WORSHIP OF GOD.

HISTORY OF BARTON HEIGHTS' WORK

Rev. Mr. Randolph Preaches the Dedicatory Sermon and Tells About the Movement to Establish the Church-Other Exercises.

The Church of the Epiphany, at Barion Heights, was consecrated to the service of God by Right Rev. Bishop J. B. Newton last night, in the presence of a large congregation. Apart from the deep significance of the event, it held a parlicular interest from the fact that it is the second Episcopal church that has been consecrated within this century in the county of Henrico, the only other being Emmanuel church, which was ledicated thirty-seven years ago.

The Richmond Convocation, which has been in session in this church since Tuesfay last, adjourned after the consecration, to meet again at the church of Rev W. B. Lee, at Gloucester Courthouse next fall.

There was a devotional meeting for the clergy at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, followed by matins, at which Rev. Henry Wingate preached from the lext, "Ho! every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price." Isalah lv., 1. THE CONSECRATION SERVICES.

The services last night were impresave and beautiful. In the sanctuary, besides Bishop Newton, were Revs. J. J. Fravatt, dean of the convocation; W. P. Chrisman, rector of the church, and . H. Birkhead, W. M. Clark, J. Y. Down man, R. A. Goodwin, Martin Johnson, W. B. Lee, L. R. Mason, C. L. Price, B. M. Randolph, J. W. Ware, and Henry Win-which was at one time a competence and connected with Emmanuel church.

The preacher took his text from Ephesians if, 19 and 29. "Now, therefore, ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints and of the household of God; and are built upon the foundation of apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ him-self being the chief corner-stone."

In opening his discourse he expressed very high appreciation of the honor conferred upon him in being selected by the authorities as the preacher upon the ocasion. It was seven years ago that he question of establishing a mission a Barton Heights was first mooted. city clergy were consulted, and declared that their hands were already so full that they could only give their individual god-speed and encouragement to the work. Emmanuel church then took the mission up and fostered it, and it was to the contributions and support of that ongregation that the mission owed it growth. Emmanuel church, he said, had her reward in that her Master has been glorified. "As this building and this as-sembly and these ceremonies so fully emonstrate Christ made manifest the Church of the Epiphany. You will realize therefore," he added, "that Emmanuel" rector takes a peculiar pleasure in having een extended the church welcome to this newly conscorated sister of Henrico consecrated buildings."

Mr. Randolph urged his hearers to pre-serve a godly unity, without which progress would be impossible, to unite it very service, and to direct their efforts

The consecration services were followed by the celebration of holy communion A special and attractive musical programme, under the direction of Mr. Redd. organist of Emmanuel church, marked the occasion. Miss Rebecca Hutchinson sang with fine effect "The Holy City" at the offertory. The new church was set apart by the council less than a year ago. It is a very pretty building inside and out, and is substantially furnished with oak sit-tings. It is entirely free from debt, and starts out with a large and enthusiastic membership and a vizorous and indefatigable rector, who has already won the ove and esteem of his flock.

Dr. Tudor to Speak To-Morrow-Some Other News Matters

To-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the Rev. W. V. Tudor, pastor of Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, will address the men's meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association, taking for his "Hearers and Hearers." Dr. Tudor is well known as an eloquent and powerful speaker, and one who attracts large audiences of young men. The musical attraction will be unusually strong, being no less than the Second Baptist church orchestra and quartette, under the directorship of Mr. Walter C. The quartette is composed of Mrs. W. C. Mercer, soprano, Miss Erna Bass, contraito: Mr. W. C. Mercer, tenor, and Dr. W. Ralph Clements, bass; Mr. Herbert L. Rees, accompanist, and an orchestra of five pieces. Mr. P. A. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, will talk to the boys at 3 o'clock, taking for his theme "Light-

The Second-District Trouble.

The Second-District Trouble.

Dr. Richard A. Wise, the Republican congressional aspirant who is contesting the election of Hon. William A. Young from the Second District, was in the city yesterday. He said he would be ready to present his statement to Congress about June 20th, and he would prove that he was entitled to Mr. Young's seat.

Referring to the subject of national patronage in Virginia, Dr. Wise said that Colonel Lamb had nothing to do with the movement against Mr. Bowden. Said he:

"The committee that went to Washington the other day to protest against the elevation of Mr. Bowden to the position of post-office referre was composed of nearly 100 prominent Republicans of the Second District, and each man paid his own expenses. Of the critice celegation but four were negroes.

"The chairmen of every county in the district but two were in the party, and they bore resolutions condemning Mr. Bowden from the county committees.

"The Postmaster-General received them graciously, and the interview was entirely satisfactory."

tial.

The Adjutant-General has, by direction of the commander-in-chief, just issued special order No. 5, which is as follows:

"Upon the recommedation of Brigadier-General A. L. Phillips, of the First Brigade, special order No. 2, A. G. O., dated April 12, 1897, is hereby countermanded, and the court to be convened by said order is dissolved."

Special order No. 2 had been issued to convent a court-martisl at Blackstone, to try Capiain Harris, of Company F, Third Regiment Infantry, on charges and speci-dications preferred against him for vio-lating the State regulations.

The charges set forth that Captain Har-ris had failed to forward to headquarters certain papers and reports in the time prescribed by law. Captain Harris claims that he gave the order to forward the papers to his clerk in due time, but that the latter neglected to promptly carry out the instructions of his employer.

Fire in the County.

Two alarms of fire were turned in at 3 o clock yesterday afternoon—one from Box No. 313, at Beverly and Ranfoth streets, and the other from No. 315, at Washington and Cary, Both were sent for the same fire, and the occasion was the burning of a stable in the rear of Mrs. Bethell's evidence, on Winder street. The place is some distance from the city limits, and the firemen could not reach it. The residence was saved, though, by neighbors, who formed a bucket brigade.

Mrs. Dunham, the aerial artist connected with the Barnum & Balley shows, who was hurt in a fall from her trapeze in Washington day before yesterday, is a sister of Jake Wells, the popular manager of the Richmond Base-Ball Club, and she is now at his residence, on Lombardy street, where she is being tenderly cared for. Her injuries are not as zerious as was at first thought, and she will soon be ready to go back in the ring with her husband.

Their Seventy-Eighth Anniversary Union Lodge, No. 7, I. O. O. F., celebrated last night the seventy-eighth anniversary of the Order of Odd-Fellowship in this country. The exercises were held at Odd-Fellows' Hall, at the corner of Mayo and Franklin streets. Speeches were made by several prominent members of the order, and an excellent musical programme was rendered by the East-End Quartette. East-End Mandolin Club, Eugene Davis Page, and several ladies. The evening was rounded with a banquet.

A regular meeting of R. E. Lee Camp. No. 1, Confederate Veterans, was held last night. Commander Warren filled the chair. SUNDRY CIVIL BILL.

Forestry Amendment Likely to Be come Law.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 7.-(Spe cial.)-The sundry-civil bill, one of the creations of the last Congress, which withered and drooped for the lack of Executive nourishment, passed the Senate last night. As the bill had previously passed the present House, no-thing is lacking now but the Executive

The revocation of the forestry law, which is one of the Senate amendments to the bill, will provoke probably sufficient discussion in the House to send the bill to conference, but its ultimate passage is now assured.

The appropriation of $100,000 additional for a government building at Norfolk, and of $2.500 for selecting a location for the memorial bridge which is to connect the Capital city with historical Arilington, on the Virginia shore, are two of the items of the bill in which our people are interested. As they have been agreed upon by both houses, their safety cannot be endangered even by a conference consideration of the bill.
